KLAMATH FALLS, MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1909.

CRESCENT NEWS.

Winter is on in earnest in the north end of Klamath County, as well as in other parts of Oregon. The snow was quite deep but the Chinook wind has taken it down to a great extent. It is pleasantly warm now. Some rain has also fallen.

Mr. Arnold, who has been teaching at Long Prairie since January 11, arrived at Crescent one day this week in an exhausted condition, from exposure to the cold. He came during our very coldest weather, riding 28 miles horseback.

Everybody is staying pretty close at home this bad weather, only necessity driving them out.

Chas. Graves, Sr., made a trip to Rosland with a four horse team one day last week. This broke out the road pretty well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ringo have moved to their own homestead above Crescent.

Mr. Dyer, of Colorado, with his widowed sister, Mrs. Shultz, are staying at the sawmill until spring. He is desirous of locating on a homestead if he finds one to suit him. We hope he may be successful and make his home in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson have their new house on their homestead fixed up very nicely and is cozy and warm. They moved into it about the first of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Howard made a trip to Silver Lake before the big snow came.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Thomas are living in the Beatty house. Mrs. St. Thomas is a sister of Mrs. J. L. Howard.

Our mail carrier has not missed a trip yet, although he had to break the road out on two different trips.

There is very little news this bad weather, so it is little your north end correspondent has to say. When the weather gets better I will write often.

A letter received from Thos. Brew, State Senator at Woodburn, Oregon, by Geo. F. Cline, states that the snow is 14 inches deep there and the thermometer registers 4 below zero. On account of the roads being so muddy a number of the small children are at present kept out of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duncan were visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. R. C. Williams Monday.

E. R. C. Williams was called to Klamath Falls this week by a special meeting of the directors of the Water Users Association.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS

are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
